Come and See KIDS

Bible stories, traditional Catholic prayers, coloring pages, and easy crafts teach children about God through His Word. Whether used as a companion book to the adult series or for individual, family, or parish study, "Come and See KIDS" is a perfect way to introduce children ages 3-7 to the richness of Scripture.

The Life of Jesus

A companion to the adult The Gospel of John or The Synoptics, the twenty-three lessons take children from the Annunciation to Jesus' Resurrection. 124 pages, $9.95

In the Beginning

Written to accompany the adult Genesis, the twenty-three lessons take the child from creation to the story of Joseph in Egypt. 112 pages, $9.95

Sample coloring pages

Available Soon! Friends of God Old Testament and New Testament saints offer role models for children.

About our Contributors

Father Joseph Ponessa, S.S.D., a pastor in Montana, studied Sacred Scripture at the Pontifical University of Biblical Studies (the Biblicum) in Rome, where he learned thirteen languages including Aramaic, the language that Jesus spoke. Father teaches Bible study to teenagers in his parish and to inmates at a local prison.

Monsignor Jan Majernik, S.T.D. finished his doctorate in Sacred Scripture at the Franciscan School of Biblical Studies in Jerusalem and studied biblical archeology at the Hebrew University. For twenty years, he has provided spiritual direction for pilgrims to the Holy Land.

Father Jan Liesen, S.S.D. also studied at the Biblicum in Rome and wrote his doctoral dissertation on Sirach. Father Liesen teaches Scripture to lay people and seminarians in the Netherlands and also serves on the Papal Theological Commission.

Laurie Watson Manhardt, Ph.D. studied education at the University of Michigan. She and her husband Jim host a Bible study for couples in inter-faith marriages in their home in Florida.

Each video offers background material that enhances, deepens, and expands on the "Come and See" studies. These 10-15 minute presentations per chapter include additional commentary by the authors, classic Christian art, and photographs of historic sites in the Holy Land. Adding this visual component to the study reinforces the student's comprehension and knowledge. It is a perfect way to begin or end a group Bible study!

The Gospel of John

Provides a perfect starting point for Bible study. Twenty-one chapters reveal the theological understanding of Christ's life and the Catholic Church's scriptural basis for the sacraments of Baptism, Reconciliation, Eucharist, Matrimony, and Holy Orders. 206 pages, $19.95

Genesis

Examines archeological and scientific facts to study the truths revealed in this Old Testament book. Twenty-two chapters present the beginning of human history and the lives of the patriarchs Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. 206 pages, $19.95

Prophets and Apostles

Presents eleven Old Testament prophets looking to God's promised Messiah while eleven New Testament books show the fulfillment of prophecy in the Passion, death, and Resurrection of our Lord. 206 pages, $19.95

The Synoptics

Takes you on a pilgrimage to the Holy Land and offers insights from biblical archeology, plus side-by-side comparisons of Gospel passages explaining the life of Jesus. 206 pages, $19.95

David and the Psalms

Studies the life of David and the psalms associated with his life. The twenty-two chapters study Ruth, 1 and 2 Samuel, and the book of Psalms. 206 pages, $19.95

Future studies planned for the series: "Corinthians," "Sirach," and "Acts"
